

For many years we lived in the Sinclair Broadcasting area and were very satisfied with its programming. However, we are very disappointed at the about-turn it is taking. I consider it to be a sleazy tactic.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

IF YOU DON'T MAKE AN ABOUT-TURN ON THIS ISSUE WE'LL DO ALL WE CAN TO LET OTHERS KNOW OF THIS "SLEAZY TACTIC" YOU ARE CONSIDERING!! PLEASE CHANGE!
